

February Newsletter by Austin Yim

The first night was spent at Big Bear, and on the second night they traveled to Snow Summit. Scout William Wei reports, "The food was simple but scrumptious."

Scouts had the choice of either skiing or snowboarding: regardless of the choice, all of the scouts had a good time at the slopes this winter.

This February, adults Serena Szu, Sharon Xu, Jenny Song, Jin Yim, and Vildana put on the annual Green and Gold Dinner Party. Scouts and their friends and family all attended, and participated in a wonderful raffle and ate a delicious dinner. This event is a fundraiser in order to fund money for the troop as a whole, whether it be buying new equipment or helping pay for the numerous trips that the troop takes throughout the year. The troop wants to express its gratitude towards anyone who has made a donation to the cause. Above is a picture of the adults that came out to support and supervise the event. Thank You!

Scout Anthony Hoang "pizza-ing" to a stop on the slopes to take a photo

Above is a photo of the Snow Trip crew. As you can see, plenty of snow fell the days that they were up in the mountains, and we are grateful that no one was seriously hurt in these potentially hazardous conditions.

CAMPING TIPS

-Does your Nalgene have that weird smell again? Throw in some baking soda and a few teaspoons of water and swish it around. It should smell better after a while.

-Place your headlight on an empty plastic milk jug to create a light that fills up the whole tent

-Don't have a good kindling on hand? Use Doritos or Cheetos to keep a fire going!
